

October 9, 2007

Bedazzle Her

A Pretty Rock Jewelry

Helloooo? Anyone there? Come out, come out wherever you are, Little Miss Thrifty.

Cheapy baubles have you cowering in shame? Stop hiding and slip on some jewelry from Cumming-based Yazmin Wickham instead. Her line, A Pretty Rock, is full of killer jewels on the low-low.

Those who like to rock the bling should check out the peyote stitch cuff. Too flashy? Opt for the multicolored pearl bracelet instead. You'll look stunning in an agate rose choker or coin-pearl lariat. You'd be dumb as a rock (sorry, but that was too easy) not to get the pink pearl bouquet ring.

You'll also sit pretty in any of the earrings, which are adorned with brass fans, abalone coins, small hammered squares and hoops, and coral flowers.

So your decision will be solid as a, well, you know.

Available online at aprettyrock.com.

E-mail

Save

Print

Text

